

Council Notes-September 14, 2011

For questions or information, contact Town Hall at 886-2177 or Council Members at signalmountaintn.gov.

- Citizens are reminded to go to the town website and click on “Government” to read archived “Council Notes” dating from 2008; agenda, regular and called council meeting minutes archived from 2005; and, resolutions and ordinances from 2005. To stay current on what’s happening in the community, sign up for town emails on the “Home” page.
- On September 7th, Police Chief Boyd Veal joined Hamilton County District Attorney Bill Cox at the Chambliss Home to read to children. Both men are participating in “Fight Crime: Invest in Kids,” a statewide early education program for at risk children pre-K and up.
- Those who missed the MACC memorial ceremony honoring Karen Shropshire, who was the MACC’s first director, can read the plaque and watch a video of Mayor Bill Lusk reading the dedication speech at chattaphoto.com.
- On Saturday, September 17th at 7pm, the jazz/funk/rock group “Finesse” will perform at the MACC. Tickets are $10 at the door and $5 in advance.
- The Library will resume Toddler Storytime at 11am on September 20th and is open to all children accompanied by a parent or babysitter. Storytime is appropriate for children aged 2 and up and includes singing, reading and craft activities. Younger siblings are also welcome.
- On September 22nd at 6:30pm, Barry Moser will hold a conversation and book signing at the Library. Mr. Moser has illustrated more than 200 children’s books and received numerous prestigious national awards. For information call 886-7323.
- Summer hours at the Transfer Station have concluded. Regular hours, Monday-Friday 7:30am-3:45pm and Saturday 8am-3:45pm, have been resumed.
- Think Local--Buy Local! For every $100 spent in locally owned stores, $68 returns to the community through taxes, payroll and other expenditures.